

Curriculum Vitae

Nils Hansen

Born 1978 in Düsseldorf

Education

1997 Final School Exam „Städt. Görres Gymnasium“

1997-2000 learned the profession of a stonesculptor near Cologne, finished successfully

2000 winning different prizes as the best stone sculptor in Cologne area, second-best in Northrhine Westphalia and third best in Germany

2000-2003 gaining a bursary as especially talented from the Ministry of Education and Research (Begabtenförderung)

2001-2003 Master (Meister) in Stonesculpture in Düsseldorf

2005-2006 Bursary from the European Union for stone sculpting in Carrara, Italy

Artistic Experience & Exhibitions

2000 collective exhibition, “Die Gute Form im Handwerk”, Dortmund

2001 collective exhibition, “Manufactum“, Dortmund

2002 collective exhibition, “Am Südfriedhof“, Düsseldorf

2003 sculptural work in St. James, France

2004 collective exhibition, “Rathausgalerie”, Brühl

2005 work in Arco-Arte-studio, assistance for the sculptor Boutros Romhein, Carrara

2006 -assistance of the sculptor Lutfi Romhein for a project in Rome

-working on a larger-than-lifesize sculpture of Johannes Paul II. for the catholic church in Scotland, erected near Glasgow, assistance of Tom Allan

- solo exhibition, “Bewegung in Carrara-Marmor“, Neuss

- “Clach”, 1. International Stone-sculpture symposium in Plane Castle, Scotland

- 2007 - Exhibition "Rheingold" with the painter Godana Garawanke in the Gallery
Gecko,Solingen;Germany
- assistance of the sculptor Arne Maeland in Os,Norway
  - "Clach"2007, 2. International Stone-sculpture Symposium in Kelburn Castle, Scotland

contact: www.nils-hansen.com